3. Secretary's Report

3:1 Michael Boyle has agreed all Clacks delegates can attend AGM.

3:2 Consultation process re St Mungo's Primary remaining in Alloa Academy has commenced.

3:3 Dinner for Reps – EIS President unable to attend; Vice President will attend instead.

Rob (EIS Organiser) will also be in attendance.

KF will email all Reps.

3:4 "Stand up for Quality Education Campaign" – concern raised regarding escalation of violent/aggressive behaviour in schools. Discussed at last LNCT without satisfactory outcome. Steven did not table this as he mistakenly thought only 11 members had responded; infact it was 11 Centres – more than 50% of members.

EIS recommended a possible way forward should be to set up a Working Group.

KF to email Colin Bruce to highlight issue with the expectation it will be revisited at LNCT.

As a result of the survey findings it was clarified Clackmannanshire was higher than any other local authority in terms of violent and aggressive incidents (94%).

3:5 WTA – EIS has published more resources to help with WTA. Rob has volunteered to visit schools to support with WTA.

3:6 Mandatory Training – runs from April – April. Must be completed by all staff.

3:7 Motions put forward were declined. No feedback to explain this decision. KF will contact HQ to find reason why this happened.
