

EIS Equality Networks

The EIS BAME, Disabled and LGBT+ Members Networks are informal networks that each meet 2-3 times per year and shares information and updates between meetings

The Networks

- Connects EIS members who are LGBT+, BAME or disabled with colleagues from across Scotland
- Informs the Equality Committee and EIS work on equality issues
- Provides tailored opportunities for members to attend events, CPD, conferences and seminars
- Keeps members up to date with equality news and initiatives
- Gives members the chance to shape EIS policy.

Get Involved

For further information, visit the EIS website or contact equality@eis.org.uk

www.eis.org.uk/Networks/Equality

The Educational
Institute of Scotland