

Episode 1: The Malady of Misogyny

From Tate tantrums to Barbie blessings, 2023 saw a reinvigoration of a cultural conversation about mainstream misogyny. In this episode, we spoke to Laura at Rape Crisis Scotland, Dan at Beyond Equality - two people who have made it their mission to address the malady that is misogyny. We also spoke to teacher Hannah Lafferty about the equality work she has taken forward in her school.

Topics include:

- How misogyny manifests in schools and colleges
- How to effectively challenge misogynistic attitudes and behaviours
- Whole school approaches to GBV
- Reasons to be hopeful

If you are affected by any of the issues discussed in this podcast, please seek support:

- <https://www.eis.org.uk/contacts/who>
- <https://www.rapecrisisscotland.org.uk/>
- <https://www.sdafmh.org.uk/en/>

Links to resources and further information:

- <https://www.beyondequality.org/>
- <https://www.equallysafeatschool.org.uk/>
- <https://blogs.glowscotland.org.uk/glowblogs/mvpscotland/>
- <https://www.eis.org.uk/gender-equality/girfgguidance>
- <https://www.eis.org.uk/gender-equality/tacklingsexualharassment>
- <https://www.eis.org.uk/gender-equality/genderbasedviolence>

A full transcript of this episode can be found on <https://www.eis.org.uk/equality/stillwerise>