

EIS Professional Learning Conference 2019:
Responding to the Diverse Range of Pupils' Additional Support Needs

Saturday 11 May 2019 9.15am – 1.05pm

Radisson Blu, 80 High Street, The Royal Mile, Edinburgh, EH1 1TH

Programme

9.15-9.50	Registration, tea, coffee and hot rolls
9.50-10.00	Welcome and introduction- Alison Thornton, EIS President
10.00-10.40	Keynote presentation- Professor Lani Florian, Bell Chair of Education at Moray House School of Education, University of Edinburgh:
10.40-10.55	National Officer Jenny Kemp: the findings of and EIS response to, academic research commissioned by the EIS into local authority ASN provision
10.55-11.45	Workshop
11.45-12.05	Tea/ coffee break
12.05-12.55	Workshop
12.55-1.05	Vote of thanks and close Sonia Kordiak, Convener, EIS CPD Sub-Committee

Workshops

1. Responding to Children's and Young People's Social, Emotional and Behavioural Needs: Dr Carrie Ballantyne, University West of Scotland

2. Supporting Pupils/Students from Refugee and Migrant Communities who have English as an additional Language - Clare Fulton, Global Learning Adviser, One World Centre
3. Addressing the Needs of Children and Young People with Autism: Lorna Johnston, DHT, City of Edinburgh Council.
4. Children and Young People's Mental Health: Rachael Hood, Mental Health Foundation